33 stalls participated in carnival

LAHAD DATU: A total of 33 stalls participated in the four-day Sabah Student Carnival (Karsis), which was held at Dataran Sedco from June 5.

The carnival is organised by the Adhoc of Sabah Children from University Malaysia Sabah (UMS) and University Utara Malaysia (UUM), in collaboration with the Lahad Datu District Council.

Assistant Minister to the Chief Minister cum Lahad Datu Assemblyman, Datuk Haji Datu Nasrun Haji Datu Mansur said Karsis is important as it acts as a platform to expand business networking, especially for new entrepreneurs.

"This carnival is also seen as an effort to provide exposure to the community, particularly students, to choose entrepreneurship as their major field in line with the government's policy.

Various activities were also held to highlight the carnival, such as coloring contest, hand wrestling competition, aerobics and exhibitions. — Efa Rizan
